

Sinclair Broadcastingmandate to their stations to to air Stolen Honor is a clear abuse of the public license to use publicly owned airwaves. This is the kind of arrogance that arises from media monopolies and consolidation of media ownership.
We need to establish rules and procedures that will prevent this kind of partisan abuse of the public airways.